

DULL WEEK IN WILMINGTON

Interest in the Campbell-Berry Marriage in New York.

MME. NORDICA IS COMING

Engaged with De Reszke and the Metropolitan Orchestra for a concert on May 24, which will be a notable society occasion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., March 28.—This has been the dull week, socially, since the beginning of the Lenten season, and the present prospects are that society will continue in an inactive state until after Easter. Then another season of gaieties will open, and continue to hold the rounds of pleasure until summer sends many of Wilmington's society people to the seashore.

Wilmingtonians are much interested in the announcement of the approaching marriage of James Douglas Campbell, formerly of this city, and Miss Winifred Berry, of New York city, which will be celebrated in that city on Wednesday, the 15th of April. The Southern colony in New York will be well represented, and the occasion is anticipated with unusual pleasure by reason of the popularity of the young couple and the fact that the groom is the first of this particular branch of the Southern crowd to become a benedict. Mr. Campbell is a man of wonderful mind for his age, and is private secretary to Mr. John Hays Hammond, the famous mining expert, who represents large American and English interests. Miss Berry is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berry. She is an accomplished young woman, and well known in New York. Mr. Campbell's best man is Mr. J. C. Campbell, formerly of Winston-Salem, N. C. His ushers will be Messrs. Robert Hunter Patton, Jr., formerly of Princeton, N. J.; William J. Duncan, a native of Louisville, Ky.; C. H. McElroy, of Patterson, N. J., and Robert E. Pollock, formerly of Winston-Salem.

Rev. Dr. M. W. Egerton, of Knoxville, Tenn., who came here upon invitation of the Pulpit Committee of the First Baptist Church of this city, to look over the field, has returned home. Dr. Egerton made a most favorable impression here, and was shown many pleasant attentions.

Society is looking forward with deep pleasure to the engagement of Mme. Nordica, De Reszke and Duna's Metropolitan Orchestra for a concert in this city on May 24. The local management has guaranteed the famous musical company $10,000 for one concert. Mr. and Mrs. R. Keith, of Boston, arrived this afternoon on their handsomely equipped yacht. They have been cruising as far south as Jacksonville, Fla., and will spend a week or more in the waters of the Cape Fear. Mr. and Mrs. Keith are most pleasantly remembered here.

Rev. J. A. Van Hoose, of Birmingham, Ala., spent several days in the city this week. He is president of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association. Mr. G. P. Fletcher, soliciting freight agent for the Seaboard Air Line in this city, has resigned to take a position in the traffic department of the Riter-Connelly Steel Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The ladies of the Cape Fear Golf Club played a tournament this week, which resulted in a tie between Mrs. Annie Northrop and Miss Mary Calder for first place. They made a score of 74.

Mr. A. L. Lissman, a prominent New York banker, who is president of the Cayetville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, was here this week. Mr. George Albert Alderman has returned from Jacksonville, Fla., to accept a position in the Atlantic Coast Line General offices.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson and Miss Jackson are in Florida on a pleasure trip. Miss Ruth Feary has returned from Providence, R. I., where she spent several weeks visiting relatives.

Captain James D. McNeill, Miss Bessie McNeill, Misses Slocumb and Miss Ellen Hollingsworth, of Fayetteville, arrived this week on a visit.

Miss Lida Potter has returned to New York, after visiting relatives here. Mrs. T. R. Ratliff, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. J. Frank Maunier.

Mrs. R. W. Hicks has as her guest Mrs. Marshall Williams of Wilson. Mrs. J. W. Taylor, of Hahira, Ga., is here on a visit to Mrs. A. S. Holden, her daughter. Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Hattie Taylor have returned from a visit to New York.

Captain W. R. Kenan, of Raleigh, has returned, after a visit to Captain and Mrs. W. R. Kenan. Captain W. R. Kenan, who has been sick for the past few weeks, has gone to the beach, to spend a few weeks at the palatial home of his daughter, Mrs. H. M. Flagler.

Miss Lizzie Gibson, of Columbia, S. C., is visiting Miss Lizzie Stokely.

The Roll of Honor of Beulah School is as follows: Claude Allard (1), Lorena Duke, Arthur Hutchinson (2), George Schurr (3), Mattie Winifred (23), Martin Winifred (1), Josie Winifred (2), Roy Anderson, Albertus Bear (23), Goldie Bailey (6), Gracie Hughes (9), Jonnie Hornby (6), Minnie Hutchinson (17), Merle Perkins (8), Hazel Schurr (2), Edna Zella (4), Dorothy Bauer, teacher.

RALEIGH HAS WEDDINGS TO COME

Several Interesting Announcements in Regard to Marriages After Easter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., March 28.—The Raleigh Chapter of King's Daughters are preparing to send an unusually large delegation to the State convention, which convenes at Salisbury April 29th and 30th. It is expected that action will be taken looking to the establishment of a reformatory for young criminals, to be conducted under the patronage of the State, the institution to be paid for the custody of the prisoners committed to their care. The officers of the State convention are Mrs. W. H. S. Burgwyn, Winston, leader, North Carolina branch; Mrs. F. A. Olds, Raleigh, State recording secretary. The Salisbury officers and officers at large are Mrs. J. B. Council, leader; Mrs. N. Murphy, secretary; Mrs. Lizzie Martin, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Davis, New York, national leader.

The Agricultural and Mechanical Club Dramatic Club, assisted by a number of Raleigh ladies, most gifted in the histrionic art, are rehearsing diligently for the presentation on Easter Monday night of "She Sings to Conquer." The society folk of Raleigh are looking forward with much interest to this event. Eyewitnesses have received invitations to the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Cameron Taylor to Mr. Thomas Edgar Cheek on Thursday evening, April 8th, at Durham.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Mary Lucas White, of this city, to Rev. A. Wilson Setzer, of Morehead City. The ceremony will be in Tabernacle Baptist Church on April 10th.

A notable event during the past week was a coffee social given at St. Luke's Home for Old Ladies under the auspices of the ladies of St. Luke's Circle, King's Daughters. A program of music, recitations, etc., was rendered and the attendance was very large, resulting in quite a creditable sum of money for the benefit of the institution.

At Carboro last Wednesday Mr. Garlin Scott Tucker, of this city, and Miss Toler Moore, of Carboro, were united in marriage in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Tucker is the principal owner of one of Raleigh's largest furniture stores.

It is announced that Miss Mary Seaton Hay and Mr. William Branch Jones will be married in the Church of April 22d. This will be one of the most fashionable after-Lenten weddings in Raleigh. Miss Hay is a daughter of Mr. T. T. Hay, and is one of the most popular young ladies in Raleigh, while Mr. Jones is one of the brightest young attorneys here, being a son of Mr. Armistead Jones, with whom he is associated in law practice.

There will be several other announcements of fashionable weddings very soon, all to take place during April and early May.

CAROLINA WEDDINGS

Beautiful Church Ceremony at Whiteakers at High Noon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., March 28.—A beautiful marriage was solemnized at the Methodist Protestant Church at Whiteakers at high noon Tuesday. Miss Elizabeth A. Braswell, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Braswell, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Luther R. Mills, superintendent of the Scotland Neck Knitting Mills. Rev. A. J. Moore officiated. Miss Edna Rabbit officiated as bridesmaid, and the bride party was preceded by little Miss Margaret Braswell and Master Henry Cutchin with a silver waiter containing the marriage license. Miss Mary Lee Joyner, of Greensboro, was maid of honor, attended by Miss Anna Mills, of Wake Forest, and Mr. J. A. Braswell, of Whiteakers. The ushers were Messrs. J. S. Johnson, F. S. Hyman and H. McDowell, of Whiteakers, and P. Kitchen, of Scotland Neck. After the ceremony an elegant luncheon was served at the home of the bride, where the happy couple left for Scotland Neck.

High Point Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. G. Booker, Mr. Fred. Jones and Miss Flossie Booker were married. Rev. A. S. Caldwell officiating. Mr. C. M. Jones, of Kinston, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Minnie Lumden, of Raleigh, was maid of honor.

T. P. A. EDITION OF TIMES-DISPATCH

A meeting of the members of Post A, T. P. A., interested in the forthcoming "Special T. P. A. edition" of the Times-Dispatch, Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock at the T. P. A. room.

Important plans will be discussed and it is hoped that every member who desires to see this special edition succeed in the broadest sense will attend.

PEOPLE IN CHARLOTTE

During Lenten Season There Are Many Smaller Pleasures.

AT ELIZABETH COLLEGE

The Students Recall Was a Most Enjoyable Affair—The Sorority Book Club Were Most Pleasantly Entertained.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 28.—The students' recital at Elizabeth College Monday night was enjoyed by a large number of Charlotte people. The program was an excellent one.

The Electric Book Club met with Mrs. John W. Miller Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

At a meeting held in the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association Monday afternoon, an interesting talk was made by Mrs. M. M. and a solo excellently sung by Miss May Courtney Oates.

The Sorority Book Club were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Brewster Springs, at her home in Dilworth on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. M. J. Brady has rented the handsome new residence of Dr. H. C. Henderson on Eighth Street, and will open an up-to-date boarding house the first of the month.

Mr. J. Smith received his commission as postmaster on Tuesday and will take charge of the postoffice April 1st.

At the meeting of the Mecklenburg Presbytery Tuesday, the pastoral relations between Rev. C. T. Thompson and Sharon Presbyterian church were dissolved. Mr. Thompson has accepted a call at Tolegash, Indian Territory, where he has three sons prosperously located. The people of Sharon dislike very much to give up Mr. Thompson. He has been pastor of the church for the past six years and every one in Sharon township likes him. Recently he was elected chaplain of the Mecklenburg Confederate Camp and the old veterans are very much grieved that he is to leave.

While it is hardly possible that Charlotte will get a union depot, it is an assured fact that the depot will be greatly improved. Colonel Andrews was here Monday with architect, Milburn, for the purpose of taking up the matter of a new depot. He doesn't think the proposition as practicable for a union station, as there is not land enough for sufficient tracks for his present business, and that there is no proper location here, central to all points, which would afford enough space for the tracks of both the Seaboard and the Southern Railway.

Mr. W. J. Lazeby, the contractor who is building the Carnegie Library, states that the library will be ready for occupancy on April 15th.

The Ladies Crittenton Circle met Wednesday afternoon at the Tyeon Street Methodist church.

Dr. Harverson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of the city, began a two-weeks meeting last Sunday.

It is understood that the Allen Hardware Company, which shortly take an automobile agency in this city.

The county has over 120 miles of macadamized roads, and expects to use many automobiles sooner or later.

Music lovers had a treat in the afternoon concert which was given at the Second Presbyterian church Thursday night. Dr. Fisher presided at the organ, and well-known Charlotte artists took part.

Captain P. M. Barron of the United States Marine Corps, has arrived in the city from Greensboro Wednesday and will open a marine recruiting station here.

The Bostonians presented Robin Hood at the Academy Thursday night, the largest audience of the season. Charlotte people were delighted with the clever work of the Bostonians.

SIGN THE PLEDGE

If You Will, But That Don't Cure Drunkenness!

Drunkenness is a disease and is so recognized by the medical profession. The diseased condition of the organs of the body and the abnormal state of the nerves of the stomach demand more than a mere pledge to abstain from drinking. It is a disease and must be cured by a scientific method. This is the only way to cure it. It is a disease and must be cured by a scientific method. This is the only way to cure it.

OLD WINDOW IN ST. JOHN'S

Recently Found When the Church Was Remodeled.

TO BE UNVEILED TO-DAY

Miss Mary Seiden, of Newport News, a Lineal Descendant of the First Rector, Has Been Invited to Unveil the Window To-Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., March 28.—The old memorial window which was found several months ago when old St. John's Episcopal Church at Hampton was being remodeled is to be unveiled to-day at 3:30 o'clock with solemn and impressive ceremonies, conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Bryan.

The window was placed in the chancel, and a number of the clergy who presided over St. John's Parish from 1610 to 1778, the names being engraved on the hands of the stained glass. Very few people have seen the names on the old window, and the reading of the names will be an interesting feature of the program of the unveiling.

Miss Mary Seiden, of this city, sister of Mrs. B. T. Wellford, has been invited to unveil the window. She is a lineal descendant of Rev. William Seiden, the first rector of St. John's, whose name is among those on the window, the date opposite it being 1610. Miss Seiden has accepted the invitation, and a number of her friends from this city will go down to attend the services to-morrow.

A FANCY BALL. Arrangements are being made for a fancy ball to be given at the Chamberlain Hotel at Old Point on evening during the week after Easter Sunday. This event will mark the beginning of the post-Lenten festivities, and the ball will be a short time after. All of the society folk on the Peninsula will attend the dance, and it is promised to be a "swell" affair.

The Sub-Rosa Whist Club was entertained Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Heath.

The Younger Society took a dance Thursday evening.

The Amateurs who recently produced Alabama were tendered a party by this week by Messrs. Harry Bernstein, of the Academy of Music.

The High Five Club was entertained Monday evening by Miss Clemence Cooke.

The Diploma Euchre Club was entertained this week by Miss Eleanor Harris.

Miss Ida Benfey, the Story-teller here To-morrow Night.

Miss Benfey, at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow night. Miss Ida Benfey the great story teller, who will appear on the association course at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow night, is one of the most prominent characters on the Lyceum Platform to-day.

In fact hundreds any who has no equal. In speaking of her work in the Chicago Tribune, Miss Benfey says: "I do not know how many times I do this, perhaps a hundred. I have spent five or six years on my great book 'Les Miserables'."

"While studying 'Job'—my latest book—I realized that it is the story of a man who lost faith in God and got it back again. This is my skeleton upon which to build 'Job'—the Book of Job—the material necessary to fill out my skeleton and to complete the man that I want to see and all it is necessary to say to picture the idea."

"I simply study the book—not the opinion of some one else concerning it. When I feel that I have a living creature I am ready to present it."

An Easter Outfit

That is sure to fit both the occasion and the man if made here! If ordered now, the suit will be ready in time for Easter Sunday, April 12th. Every tailor here begins the beginning to do the best work until the last stitch is taken.

A GAY WEEK SOCIALLY

An Appreciative Audience Hears College Dramatic Club.

STAFFORD HUNT CLUB

An Old Fashioned Quilting Party in Spotsylvania—The Methodist Conference Has Been in Session in Fredericksburg

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 28.—The week here socially has been gay, notwithstanding it is in the midst of Lent and that the city is well filled with Methodist ministers who are attending the Baltimore Conference.

The engagement of Rachel Lewis and her company at the opera house for three nights this week and one matinee was enjoyed by those who attended the performances, but owing to Lent and the Methodist Conference to the audiences were not very large. The plays presented were Frou-Frou, Ingomar, Pygmalion and Galatea and a comedy bill. The company made a fine impression and will return here after Lent.

Friday night at College Hall a large and appreciative audience witnessed an entertainment by the College Dramatic Club. A Pair of Lunatics and the Rough Diamond, two farcical sketches, were artistically presented and the audience was kept highly pleased and amused.

Those taking part were Misses Jennie Maitland, Lena Rowe and Pansy Wilkins; Messrs. B. M. Rosbro, J. M. Green, F. E. Rosbro, T. R. Bass, T. W. Hooper and J. A. Spoor.

A large party of young ladies came down from Alexandria Thursday night to attend the sessions of the Conference, and are having an enjoyable visit.

The Stafford Hunt Club started out one day this week at 8 o'clock in the morning for a fox chase, but about daybreak a terrific storm commenced and drove the members to a nearby barn for protection. They stayed in this shelter for several hours, and as there was no prospect of a cessation of the storm they returned home in a heavy rain and were thoroughly drenched. About one-half of the party were ladies.

Mrs. Bettie Harris gave an old-fashioned quilting party at her home in the city last night. The work was largely attended. The work began at 10 o'clock and continued until the dinner hour, when a sumptuous repast was served, after which work was resumed and the work continued. During the evening a number of gentlemen called and the occasion was an enjoyable one. Music was a feature of the day.

Mrs. Powhatan Moncreaf, of Stafford county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Morton, in Alexandria.

Rev. W. F. Dunaway, Jr., pastor of the Baptist Church at Glen Allen, Henrico county, was in the city this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fleet. From here he went to Lancaster county to visit his parents.

PERSONALS. Mrs. Arthur Trevvett and son, of Glen Allen, have been in the city this week. Mrs. H. M. Fleet, who is a sister of Mrs. Trevvett.

Mrs. B. M. Jeffries, of Warrenton, has been a visitor to the city this week. She is the wife of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Cheyning.

Mrs. Lizzie Pickett and Mrs. Thom W. Henderson, of Norfolk, are the guests here of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shepard and family.

Miss Annie Fleming has returned to her home here after an extended visit to friends in Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Martha, of Alexandria, has returned to her home in King George county.

Mr. W. C. Stearns has returned from a visit to New York and local points, visiting his father, Mr. R. W. Pavill, in this city.

Miss Mary Botts, who has been visiting Mr. B. B. Botwin, and family, has returned to her home in Roanoke. Mr. Eugene Bode is visiting his sister in Philadelphia.
